Are you ready for the big one?

October is Earthquake Preparedness Month

Join us for our UCLA Office of Emergency

Management Learn@Lunch

Date: Wednesday, 10/17/18

Time: 12:00pm - 1:00pm

Location: JD Morgan Center Press Room (more information)

RSVP here!

UCLA Staff Assembly hosts regular Learn-at-Lunch events for all UCLA employees. This month we are partnering with the UCLA Office of Emergency Management to host an hour-long program dedicated to Earthquake Preparedness Month (October).

Are you ready for The Big One? October is Earthquake Preparedness Month! Unlike hurricanes, earthquakes happen with no advance notice and can have devastating effects such as uninhabitable spaces and ensuing fires and explosions. Normal life as you know it may stand still for days or weeks. So come learn how you can expect your daily life to change over the short and the long-term after an earthquake. Things we will have in store for you: survival tips, sample emergency kits, earthquake trivia, survivor testimonies, and more.

UCLA Office of Emergency Management (OEM) is a unit of Environment, Health and Safety. UCLA's Office of Emergency Management ensures that the Campus Community is ready to respond to and recover from a natural or man-made emergency or disaster. OEM routinely assists departments throughout our Campus with a variety of emergency management programs such as: emergency action planning, trainings, operational response to emergencies, technical support, and disaster recovery assistance.

RSVP for the L@L here. Please feel free to bring your own lunch as food is not provided.
