EXCLUSIVE DISCOUNT: Bruin TEK Forum + #Internet50

UCLA Staff are being offered an exclusive deal on #Internet50 tickets when purchasing Bruin Tek Forum tickets.

Bruin TEK Forum: Monday, October 28 from 1pm - 6pm

UCLA's largest staff organizations have come together to bring you the Bruin Tools for Employee Knowledge (TEK) Forum. This year's event will feature three panel discussions on embracing technology for professional development and management skills. We welcome you to stay for a reception after which includes a digital welcome message from UCLA's Leonard Kleinrock, "Inventor of the Internet."

#Internet50: Tuesday, October 29 from 9:30 am - 5:30 pm

Join Lenard Kleinrock, Arpanet pioneer, and leading technologists and visionaries as they discuss the genesis, current state and future aspirations of our connected world. Featured guests include:

- Mark Cuban, entrepreneur, investor and owner of the Dallas Mavericks
- Jamie Dimon, chairman and CEO of JPMorgan Chase
- Ashton Kutcher, actor, investor and entrepreneur
- Robert Metcalfe, entrepreneur and co-inventor of Ethernet
- Katelyn Ohashi, UCLA gymnast, NCAA champion and viral sensation
- Henry Samueli, co-founder and chairman of Broadcom
- Eric Schmidt, former CEO and executive chairman of Google
- Bud Tribble, vice president of software technology at Apple

All proceeds will go toward staff scholarships and programming. This event is sponsored by UCLA Samueli #Internet50 and Spencer Trask & Co.

Planetarium Show: Life in the Universe

UCLA Staff Assembly hosts regular Learn-at-Lunch events for all UCLA employees. This month we are partnering with the UCLA Planetarium to bring UCLA staff members a special viewing of "Life in the Universe". This show will consider one of the most intriguing questions: does life exist elsewhere in the Universe? It will highlight some of the major scientific goals of Astrobiology, explore the history of our search for other life forms, how to locate life on other worlds, and the possibility of communication with extraterrestrial intelligences

Thursday, October 17, 2019

12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Mathematical Sciences Building

520 Portola Plaza

SEATS ARE LIMITED -- You must have a ticket for this event. If you RSVP and cannot attend, please email VP of Programs, Lisa Audish, at laudish@comm.ucla.edu to cancel your reservation.

Please meet at the breezeway entrance of the Mathematical Sciences Building at least 15 minutes before the show.

UCLA Center X Teacher Education Program

Are you ready to transform teaching and learning in urban schools? The UCLA Center X Teacher Education Program (TEP) is now accepting applications. TEP provides a unique setting where researchers and practitioners collaborate to design and implement programs that prepare and support K-12 teachers in LA's culturally, racially and linguistically diverse schools. TEP offers several program options for undergraduates and graduates interested in earning a preliminary teaching credential and Master of Education degree.

Applications are due December 1, 2019. We will also be hosting an online information session on November 5 and November 12 at 5 p.m. Please visit our website to RSVP:
